

INSPIRELI AWARDS

Terms and Conditions

The organizer of the "Inspireli Awards" Competition (hereinafter referred to as the "Competition") is INSPIRELI s.r.o. with the registered address: Láb 455, 900 67, Slovak Republic, Registration Number: 46238158, registered in the commercial register maintained by Bratislava I District Court, Section Sro., Entry Number.: 73950/B (hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer"). In order to actively present the Competition the Organizer operates a social network at the URL address: <http://www.inspireli.com> in various language versions (hereinafter referred to as the "Social Network"). The Competition is a "game" according to the terms of Section 2881 of Act No. 89/2012 Coll., the Civil Code.

About the competition:

- Competition is open to students of architecture or interior design, graduates and architects under the age of 35 (inclusive).
- To enter the competition, contestants are requested to register for an Inspireli Social Network account.
- Competition is open only to users who register an Architect, Designer or a Student and provide basic info such as Name and Surname, Country of origin, University and Date of Birth.
- Contestants can store/place on the Social Network and thus duly publish any amount of photos of their actual work, visualizations or designs.

Competition categories:

- Contestants entering Competition enter works in one of two categories: Vision for conceptual works and Realisation for already built projects. Contestants shall submit not only visualizations of their work, but will provide full technical details and specifications.
- Competition focuses primarily on architecture and therefore there are two categories in which entrants are expected to compete:
 - Category One "Vision": Conceptual work which has yet to be realized. These projects represent only concept, design, and vision within the realm of architecture and urban design. This category is especially well suited to students' or recent graduates' works.
 - Category Two "Realization": Projects that have been realized as architectural and urban design projects. In this category better suits more established and practicing architects.
- All projects submitted are compared directly against each other, and the best works within each category is pre-selected. Thereafter, the projects are assessed based on the evaluation criteria defined within the two following frameworks:
 - Framework A: Based on classic design and architectural principles these criteria define the basis to evaluate completeness of required concept data including project visuals, site plan, context as well as the brief verbal description of the project objectives.
 - Framework B: Based of the principles symbolized by the "Wings to the future" vase, which define the essence of each creator during his or her creative process. Specifically, the following areas are assessed:
 - Creativity: evaluating talent, originality and novelty
 - Harmony: evaluating composition and eloquence
 - Vision: evaluating the concept, and its thought, imagination, and inventiveness.
 - Audacity: evaluating bravery, courage, and boldness
 - Wisdom: evaluating insight, understanding, and experience
 - Agility: evaluating skill and adeptness
 - Tranquility: evaluating composure and self-confidence
- Contestants will have their Competition project displayed in the Competition gallery as well as in their Social Network account.

Voting and Selection process:

- Voting on individual projects begins on July 1, 2017. Every registered user, along with the renowned Competition jury members, the International Union of Architects (referred as UIA) jury, selected by the Organizer and the professional public can submit their votes for 3 projects every Monday in the following calendar week (beginning on Monday 00:00:00 – ending on Sunday 23:59:59) and will be notified by email at the address he/she gave when registering.
